

Annette D'Antoni is an experienced, full-time REALTOR with Century 21 Hughes & Carey in New Bedford for over 11 years and is an Acushnet resident. Annette serves on the Community Service and Donations Committee, as well as other GRNBAR committees. Most recently, she has become a Director on the GRNBAR's Board of Directors. In addition, Annette has achieved several designations including CBR (Certified Buyers Representative), CDPE (Certified Distressed Property Expert), e-Pro and WHALE Historic Specialist. She is very knowledgeable with foreclosure properties and the short sale process. She loves to help her clients to the best of her abilities. "I work hard so you don't have to!" is her motto. Whether buying or selling, Annette will help you, your friends and family with all your real estate needs. Her hobbies include reading, bowling, and spending time with family. She can be reached at 508-308-1648.