

Maureen Murray lives in Dartmouth and has been in real estate for 7 years, working as a Broker Associate for Milbury and Company. Growing up in New Bedford, Maureen has always been a local resident and has a vast knowledge of the Southcoast area. Ms. Murray is a graduate of UMASS Dartmouth and is active in her community including her participation in the Steering Committee for the Town of Dartmouth's Master Plan Project. She has also earned several real estate designations and certifications including GRI (Graduate of Real Estate Institute), ABR (Accredited Buyer Representative), and LMC (Loss Mitigation Certification). Maureen serves as a Director for the Greater New Bedford Association of REALTORS® and is active in her local Association.